Invitation to ISS 2024

Hello, this is CONTEC CEO Dr. Sunghee Lee.

CONTEC is a leading global space company in the downstream sector, relentlessly pursuing challenges and innovation. We are excited to announce the second "INTERNATIONAL Space Summit 2024" will be taking place in the summer of 2024. ISS 2024 will bring together experts from the global space industry, scholars, entrepreneurs, government officials, and professionals from various fields. This is a privately-led global space conference that will illuminate New Space, offering an opportunity to reflect on the future of space development.

The conference will take place in Seoul, the city of Korean history and technology, from June 11th to 13th, spanning 2 nights and 3 days. Throughout the event, diverse programs such as space technology presentations, panel discussions, and networking events among global space players will offer opportunities to stay informed about the latest trends in space and share visions for the space industry.

We believe that everyone attending the event will provide valuable contribution and opportunities to the development and innovation of the global space industry.

We look forward to your support and active participation in the event.
